Environment

The Broads Society will continue its long history in preserving and improving all aspects throughout the entire river catchments

Broadsword Team

Volunteers on our 'Broadsword' team, enjoy doing essential practical work managing river banks.

Events

The Society attends events throughout the year. We are also keen to attend new venues at fetes, boat shows & similar across the Broads

Influencing Change

We respond to consultations both national & local on matters affecting the Broads. A great opportunity to help influence change.

Planning

Our North & South rivers committees respond when necessary to planning applications, both in the Broads Authority executive area and adjacent district council and city council areas close to the rivers
